

Mission

The first Bachelor's degree program in Psychology, in English, in Italy.

To prepare students to find a place in an International/European dimension from a professional point of view

- International cultural and professional profiles
- International Teaching methods and knowledge tests

Strengths

- Attracting students from all around the world
- Offering English teaching courses for English speaking students (e.g. in-coming Erasmus)
- Increasing the opportunities for students mobility

Preparing Italian students for a professional life abroad

Partnerships with foreign European and non-European Universities

Opportunities

Increasing students' and Professors' mobility

Increasing the offer from Padova University strengthening professional opportunities

Padova University can get an even more International dimension

